Order Instituting Investigation on the Commission's Own Motion Into Competition for Local Exchange Service.

Investigation 95-04-044
(Filed April 26, 1995)
(DALIS Phase)

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE'S RULING
GRANTING MOTIONS TO FILE
PROPRIETARY MATERIALS UNDER SEAL

On April 15, 2004, a motion was filed jointly by LSSI Corp., Metro One Telecommunications, Inc. (Metro), and WorldCom, Inc. for leave to file under seal confidential material that was attached to the unredacted proprietary version of their joint comments on the Draft Alternate Decision of President Peevey regarding Directory Assistance Listing Information Service (DALIS) prices. On April 19, 2004, a separate motion was filed by Metro for leave to file under seal page 2 of the June 6, 2002, SBC DALIS cost study and pages 1, 6, and 7 of the January 24, 2003 deposition of SBC witness Scott Pearson.

Discussion

Confidential information submitted by a public utility is protected by Public Utilities Code Section 583 and General Order (GO) 66-C. Accordingly, pursuant to GO 66-C and Public Utilities Code Section 583, which provide for confidential treatment of proprietary and confidential information submitted by public utilities to the Commission, the above-referenced parties request leave to provide this information to the Commission under seal. Granting parties motions is consistent with the protections established by statute and Commission order. Accordingly, the motions are granted in accordance with the order below.

IT IS RULED that:

1. The motions of the parties for leave to file proprietary materials under seal as identified above are hereby granted.

2. The proprietary materials as identified in this ruling shall remain under seal and shall not be accessible or disclosed to anyone other than the Commission staff except on further order/ruling of the Commission, Assigned Commissioner, the assigned ALJ or the ALJ then designated as the Law and Motion Judge.

3. Parties intending to include in their pleadings proprietary data from the materials identified in this ruling shall do so by filing the unredacted versions of their comments under seal with the Docket Office. Redacted non-confidential versions of the identified documents shall remain part of the public record.

Dated May 21, 2004, at San Francisco, California.
